"Everything"

Visit "Everything" on MotoLyrics.com

Do you hear the fear
When nothing's left inside
Do you hear me call
On the edge about to fall

Still you run to me
When my world's undone
Still you carry me
When I can no longer run

You're everything to me inside
In you I wanna die
You're everything inside
That makes me feel alive
You're everything to me
You're the one that sets me free
You're everything, everything,
Everything to me

Everything to me inside
This is where I wanna die, inside
Making me feel alive overwhelming me
All the time, day and night
Settin us free, finally, I can see you're Everything, you're everything to me
