The world whirls around in my head
While I'm lying asleep in my bed.
I know that I dream, that's why I don't scream.
My flight carries me through the night.
I feel as if I were traveling on a laser beam.
From here to there and everywhere
Takes me a snap of a finger, my eyes gleam.
Let's hope that this journey will be everlasting,
If not, I'll dream of a big bomb blasting.
Folks, be quiet, I'm just dreaming,
You won't suffer anything. I'm mad
Because I'm flying while lying in my bed.
