Pre Chorus (x2)

Do you really wanna know the truth

Take a look inside of you

Ain't no one gonna push you through (push you through)

Is someone gonna be there for you

Chorus

You wanna know the truth

Take a look inside of you

Ain't no one gonna push you though

You wanna second chance

But you ain't makin' no plans

You can talk but don't say what you won't do

Verse 1 (Simone)

You gotta have a plan

There's a reason for you to understand

Gotta change your attitude

Baby there's a life for you to choose

Don't have to ask why

You don't even make me wanna try

You gotta keep your head strong

There's a chance don't take too long

You don't wanna stuff it up this time

Pre Chorus (x2)

Chorus

Verse 2 (Naomi)

You said you want it so bad

Like you'll do anything

But you just never have

You said the past seemed so sad

Because of opportunities you've had

You said you wanna get so high

Reach up for the sky

You can look anywhere

But you know that it's all in you (it's all in you)

Pre Chorus

Chorus
