A moonlight morning back in ninty-five twenty-five years old and glad to be alive
Belmarsh Prison stripped his rights
Belmarsh Prison took his life
Gave him five years in a stinking cell
Watching years go by what was the reason
Belmarsh Prison Stripped his rights
BelMarsh Prison took his life

The warders kicked a man to death
The screaming stopped with his last breath
the warders kicked a man to death

As the screams go up nothing's said
But the media lies that they've been fed
Belmarsh prison stripped his rights
Belmarsh prison took his life
Time forgotten and his baby grew
Are all he had in his living hell
Belmarsh Prison stripped his rights

Chorus
