So you're pretty stuck in the dirt again
And it feels like you have been here before It doesn't matter if it's fate or just your fault
You better try to find the exit door once more Gettin' outta here - get your ass outta here So you're fucked up and you're underfucked? fuck it, baby!
Nevermind the shadows in your life Just hold on, you gotta be strong to survive - to survive

I tell ya even the worst case's making sense, if you keep on believing
And every new beginning is a chance, if you keep on believing
So hold on... hold on...

Flying high and flying low, anyway - be sure where to go Don't give it up, give it one more hot shot, what you don't ask for you Don't know Broken romance and so-called friends, this motherfuckin' story never ends Good and bad come and go and you know, don't deny - don't deny

I tell ya even the worst case's making sense, if you
keep on believing
And every new beginning is a chance, if you keep on
believing
So hold on... hold on...

I tell ya...
Every scar on your heart is making sense, if you keep on believing
And every new beginning is a chance, if you keep on
believing
So hold on... hold on... yeah!
