(Fahey/Detroit) 3:48

i've seen the world from a first class seat i've read the bitch and ulysses i've tried religion and philosophy i've walked upon the sea now the air is getting thin you make my senses start to swim it's just a suicidal whim
but i can't resist
an emotional thing an emotional thing
now isolation can be sweet no juvenile delinquent heat i don't have to tell ya where i'm [coming] from if i leave my cat suit on

you make my senses start to spin
but i can't resist
