It's just an answer, it's just the sound you make
To give him pleasure, and let your body feel awake
It's just a landslide, it's just some moving ways
That push you further, and now there's nothing to your taste

Oh, you're nowhere that you thought you would be
Oh, you're nowhere that you hoped you would be
I'm just a hotel, I'm just a place you stay
You take it further, you want to take it the other way
Open your windows, or break your family ties
Now that you're no one, they could ever recognize

Oh, you're nowhere that you thought you would be
Oh, you're nowhere that you hoped you would be

Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Come on, give yourself to somebody you don't know
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Give yourself to somebody new
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
My body lies, my body lies, my body lies
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers
Oh, all you lovers, all you lovers, all you lovers.
