"Always Be My Home"

Visit "Always Be My Home" on MotoLyrics.com

Your heart will always be my home,
No matter where I go,
No matter what may come.
You'll be my Shelter in the storm,
A Harbor safe and sound
Where only true forgiveness can be found.

But still...I wanna run away,
And go it all alone.
When will I ever learn from my mistakes?

And I can't live without Your love,
'Cause Your eyes have seen beyond the things I'm
guilty of.
I won't be afraid to turn back down the road,
'Cause Your heart will always be my home.

And when I've cried a thousand tears
You've always wiped them dry,
And watched me as I spread my wings and fly
To a place where holiness begins,
And mercy never ends,
And I will find my freedom once again;

But still (but still)...I wanna run away (run away),
And go it all alone (and go alone).
When will I ever learn from my mistakes?

And I can't live without Your love,
'Cause Your eyes have seen beyond the things I'm
guilty of.
I won't be afraid to turn back down the road,
'Cause Your heart will always be my home.

Your hands are always open
To catch me when I fall!
I feel a million miles away,
But that's no distance at all!

Oh, but still (but still)...I wanna run away (run away),
And go it all alone (and go alone).

When will I ever learn from my mistakes?

And I can't live without Your love,
'Cause Your eyes have seen beyond the things I'm
guilty of.

I won't be afraid to turn back down the road,
'Cause Your heart will always be my home.
'Cause Your heart will always be my home.
