When that big broom comes
For it's final sweep
I'll be in my golden chair along with
All my debts and dreams

If love wears me down
If it all goes wrong again
Know that will not be the end
I'll still be just a heart with limbs

All my debts
And all my dreams

If that spark won't catch
If we both put out the flame
You will turn into the dust
That broom will do
Just what it does

All my debts and all my dreams
Will one day be swept clean

All my debts and all my dreams
Will one day be swept clean
