You believe the stars of the night will guide you
through bright daylight.
Haven't you seen the telescope the pentagrams
are both held in
In chained hands.
In chained hands.
You're the dreaming man, dreaming while you
stand.

You believe we all can be one dance together under blood red sun haven't you seen the dark cloud forms yeah don't you know, my time to warn.
Rain does come.
Rain does come.
You're the dreaming man, dreaming while you
stand.

You believe in money and in wealth all ways lead to G-d from your mouth. Haven't you seen your cars got rust.
The road your on.
Is all wrong.
You're the dreaming man, dreaming while you
stand.
