"The Pavement Laid"

The Spirit's moving through the land
trying to bring everyone to hand.
The price now paid the pavement laid
Who will join us on the narrow way?

Yes, those will wash in his blood
Stand under showers of his love
Will then go on above, to heaven.

You know I'm not a comedian
Yet there I would be an alien.
There I won't go and settle in.
most likely stay in a nice cabin.

Because I love Zion, home for me
From God's throne, his decree
That his people with Him live in peace.
