"In Your Arms"

When the waves dash against the boulders
And my ship's tossed on an angry sea
I feel your hand rest gently on my shoulder
You guide me home and still the storm in me

In your arms I'm safe inside a harbor
In your arms my heart can rest at ease
Walk with me beside the quiet waters
In your arms is where I long to be

Even if the rainbow's colors faded
And the sun stopped shining from above
No power on earth nor anything created
Could ever separate me from your love

In your arms I'm safe inside a harbor
In your arms my heart can rest at ease
Walk with me beside the quiet waters
In your arms is where I long to be

In your arms I'm safe inside a harbor
In your arms my heart can rest at ease
Walk with me beside the quiet waters
In your arms is where I long to be
In your arms is where I long to be
