My name could be trouble,
My name could be heartache.
For trouble and heartache,
Is all that I know,
Yeah, lonely, lonely blue boy is my name.

My life over-ended, my heart been torn.
It must have been raining the night I was born,
Yeah, Lonely, lonely blue boy, is my name.

Well, I'm so afraid of tomorrow,
And so tired, so tired of today.
They say that love is the answer,
But love never came my way,

I'm writin' this letter, to someone I've known.
So if you should find it, and you're all alone,
Yeah, lonely, lonely blue boy is my name.

Well, I'm so afraid of tomorrow,
And so tired, so tired of today.
They say that love is the answer,
But love never came my way,

I'm writin' this letter, to someone I've known.
So if you should find it, and you're all alone,
Yeah, lonely, lonely blue boy is my name.
