

Butterfly Effect, The "Rain"

Restless
Did we fail to start?
Arrested
I've got a broken heart
Broken heart

With my eyes wide open
Take me back to the start
With my eyes wide open
I will lay me down in your arms

Let it rain down on me
Take me far away from here
And we'll suffer together
In your arms I'll lay me down
Fall into you

Reckless
Slowly tested
Can't mend your broken heart

With my eyes wide open
Lay me down in your arms

Suffer forever with me now
