Here is the truth, I just want you to know it now
I bet, In space you're impressive
I don't doubt your skills on your planet

I'm sure you'll find home somehow

You've shown who you really are
You are from outer space
I'm sorry you got that face
At your birth

The truth has now been revealed
This is how you're inside
I'm sorry to scream out loud
Alien

If I had to, I would lend you my bike
It's true
Then you could go home and stay there

You are from outer space
I'll scream it out in your face
I'm sure you're born on mars
Alien

I won't see you again
Trust me, I won't complain
Promise not to come back, back to earth again
