Digging holes getting old
Now you know why the people don't love you

You say you watch the walls
What do you see, what do you see
You say you've seen it all
Do you see me
Do you see me
I see the tired, the weak, the ones who needed sleep
I see the low down dirty wash their hands of the world
I see the first the last the future and the past
I see your body breathing but your minds asleep

Digging holes getting old
Now you know why the people don't love you
Digging holes getting old
Now you know now you know

You're turning into stone
But is it real is it real
Like a leper on your throne
How does it feel what do you feel
I feel the strands of time like branches in my mind
I feel the low down dirty wash their hands in my earth
I feel reborn alive, for the first time in my life
I feel my body sleeping now my mind can breathe

This could be the start of something new new
This could be the start of something new

Digging holes getting old
Now you know why the people don't love you
Digging holes getting old
Now you know now you know

This could be the start of something new new
This could be the start of something new

Digging holes getting old
Now you know why the people don't love you
Digging holes getting old

Now you know now you know (x2)
