They say I may be crazy,
I only say I've had my fill.
They say I'll throw it all away...I probaly will.
They'll only give you what your takin,
But lately I've been unfulfilled.
They say I'll blow it off someday...I probaly will.

The way they talk about eachother,
The way they talk about themselves.
Well they could talk, talk, talk forever...and they probaly will,
you know they probaly will.

Now I'm not really bitter,
You know I'm just a little chill.
They say that things can just get better...and they probaly will.
And they will only make us stronger!
If they should try and keep us still,
And we can rise and take it all someday...and we probaly will.

The way they talk about eachother,
The way you talk about yourself.
Well you can talk, talk, talk forever...and you probaly will,
you know you probaly will.
