Something terrible has occurred
Something terrible has occurred
Relight the skies
Let's hear the father speak his lies
Coward at best
A son born for time, a daughter left for dead

From the north to the south
From the east to the west
We'll pass the time
We'll load these guns and smile

I made a promise that I would keep you safe
And we would keep today just for us now
I made a promise that I would keep you
That I would keep you safe

Go

Take your last breath
For this will be the end of all of us
This will be the end
This will be then end

From the north to the south
From the east to the west
We'll pass the time
We'll load these guns and smile

I made a promise that I would keep you safe
And we would keep today just for us now
I made a promise that I would keep you safe

And now we hang the traitors high
Hang them high

The world is falling from the stars (The world well it's falling)
How can you not know who you are (The world well it's falling) [x2]
The world is falling from the stars (The world well it's falling)

How can you not know who you are
Who you are [x2]

The world is falling from the stars
(I made a promise that I would keep you safe)
How can you not know who you are
(And we would keep today just for us now)
This world is falling
(Just for us now)
This world is falling
(Just for us now)
This world is falling from the stars
