What do you want, love or protection Too complicated to comprehend, she wages war from the inside.

The morning screams my name, as days beg for nights
The morning screams my name, as days beg

He did all he fucking could
What did you want from him
Like under the wheels of a chariot
These angels of romans will sing
What did you want from him?
What did you want from him?

Guide me home oh precious light, follow your feet I wont be long
Guide me home oh precious light, follow your feet I
wont be long.
I wont be long.

Fueling the fear that feeds the fight
My insides scream for forgiveness
And now the day's begging for the night
He did all he fucking could

Freedom made it's choice, now wake up to find I'm gone
A beautiful day for us all, for us
Freedom made it's choice, now wake up to find I'm
gone
You'll wake up to find I'm.
