There comes a time in all of our lives when we realize.
Individuals can't stand alone you need someone to call your own.

And I want be the one you need but you got to open up to me cause.

It takes the two of us to make it happen.

Help me

Show me what you want me to do

Baby and I'll do it all.

Help me

I know you're searching for the same thing too girl won't you help me out?

For too long I've been lost and alone filled with many changes

But since I met you girl I can't deny I sense a new beginning

So from here we can conquer our every dream

With a love that no one else can bring so

Let's build a life together you and I won't you help me?

Do us both a favor right now

Your love I'll never doubt

But you got to help me

It takes the two of us to make it work out.

Mmm

Help me

Ooh baby show me

Exactly what you want me to do

Won't you

Help me

Oh baby show me
