The biscuit man said he had to blow
The cat's in the alleyway, the dogs don't go
You look and then you smile, it's all a joke
You get to see the fire, I can see the smoke

But you don't know anything
How long is a piece of string
You don't want anything
All I want is the birds to sing

King Kong drinks Coca-Cola
And look at that man chase the spider
Poor man he's a billionaire
And Jesus Christ do you think I care

You never miss the water, 'til the well runs dry
Keep swimming round the bowl, 'til it makes you cry
We all believe in God, when we get the fear
And everybody loves you, when they see a tear

But you don't know anything
How long is a piece of string
You don't want anything
All I want is the birds to sing

King Kong drinks Coca-Cola
And look at that man chase the spider
Poor man he's a billionaire
And Jesus Christ do you think I care

Yeah have a nice day, drop the bomb
Just look at that girl, what's she on Greenpeace man, now that's original
Cause we all love a bit of good and evil
