Do you ever think about the time of day
I've wasted listening to what you got to say
I'm not sitting here watching paint dry
I'm not gonna wait for the daily high

You're a loudmouth, it comes as no surprise
You're a loudmouth, I see it in your eyes
You're a loudmouth, it comes as no surprise
You're a loudmouth, and what you said was lies

Yeah one in every two of us has something to sell
Well I don't wanna know who wants to kiss and tell
No I'm not sitting here watching paint dry
I'm not gonna wait for the daily high

You're a loudmouth, it comes as no surprise
You're a loudmouth, I see it in your eyes
You're a loudmouth, it comes as no surprise
You're a loudmouth, and what you said was lies

You should be educated in making a decision
Instead of just saying they should be in prison
No I'm not sitting here watching paint dry
I'm not gonna wait for the daily high

You're a loudmouth, it comes as no surprise
You're a loudmouth, I see it in your eyes
You're a loudmouth, it comes as no surprise
You're a loudmouth, and what you said was lies
