It's 4 o'clock and I've had my fill of waiting.
It's too late to sleep, too early to be up and out.

This ain't right I'm such a mess.
I'm losing my confidence, maybe I'm insane...
I guess I'll talk a little more,
To keep you standing at my door.
You're all that I have left...

Is this what you've wanted all along?

Get up. Get up!
The room is not spinning.
It's in your head, you're right where they want you.
Get in, Get in!
I'll take you to safety.
Get up, Get up and come home to save me.

I've lost the clock,
And I don't feel like getting up.
Don't want to think,
What makes you think I want to talk?

This is fun I've lost my mind,
I'm losing sleep and losing time.
This is all your fault.
Can't find a job and lost the girl,
I can't even find the cure for what I have become...

Is this what you've wanted all along?

Get up. Get up!
The room is not spinning.
It's in your head, you're right where they want you.
Get in, Get in!
I'll take you to safety.
Get up, Get up and come home to save me.
