I'm in the arms of love
I want to lose control
Oh, come and give that stuff
Oh, love will let me go
I never ever touch a man that talks too much
My love will lift you up
I got a bet on you
I'll never get enough
oh, what you wanna do
You're so hot in the night
I'm careful in pride
I know that it's right, tonight

Are you serious ? - babe when you break my heart
Are you serious ? - you will tear apart
Are you serious ? - babe when you're next to me
Are you serious ? - oh, it's ecstasy

Don't be afraid of me
I'll find my way back home
I'll never set you free - my house is a danger zone
I never ever touch a man that talks too much
Don't take my love to town oh, I'm much too young
Don't let them get you down
Oh, when two hearts beat as one
You're so hot in the night
I'm careful in pride
I know that it's right, tonight
