Beautiful sky line, beads like a story
Under the scarlet Texico sign.
A perfect summer slip through our fingers
Under the weight of October skies
Now this time I'll hold you closer,

Now this time you won't let go!

No wind was humming like distant voices
That part of the nice where words lose their power
My only chance to say what I want
Under the weight of that final arm
Now this time I'll hold you closer,
Now this time you won't let go!

Now this time I'll hold you closer,
Now this time you won't let go!

Beautiful sky line, feathers and wishbones
I heard you say it, then it was gone!
