Kick down the walls
Turn back the clock
Put down the keys
Change the locks
Cause looks like there's something more than rain
coming down tonight

Unplug the phone
Break the frame
Untie the knot
That held you in your place
Cause it looks like there's something more than rain
coming down tonight

Always gonna be some rain
Always gonna be that hard
Always gonna feel the heat
Always gotta be some fire
Always gotta find your way
Always gonna look for home
Always gotta push that rock
Always gonna be alone

Let go the rail
Step on the glass
Say your peace
At last at last
Looks like there's something more than rain coming down tonight

CHORUS

Tear out the stars
Bring on the clouds
Dial it all in Turn it up loud
Looks like there's something more than rain coming down tonight X2
