Oh nobley born, let the mind be not distracted
Though the road ahead is hard and long
And the journey seems without ending
Oh that which thou art, let they gaze be not deflected
Fix thy attention on the goal,
And light that shines so celestial

Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run

Be ready for the storm
As confusion ushes in a time of chaos
But up out of the turbulence,
A better order surely will emerge, oh at night, Fear not for those you leave behind for they will be resurrected
Synergy and harmony and wisdom will come in time terrestrial

Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run

Onward ever ever on
Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
From alpha into omega

Onward ever ever on
Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
From alpha into omega

And on, across the Rubicon
So imminentised by Eschaton
Unto Ragnarock or Nemeton and beyond
In the name of Adam Kadmon you move on Ego gone be as one

Transformation to solarisation
Towards the final confrontation
Eschaton is thy destination

Pilgrim take heart,
There's a strange attraction, keeping strong acceleration
See the light, enter the light, become the light and shine
Like the star you know you are

Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
Destination Eschaton
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run
