Time was when we lay together
But that was long before the fall
I feel the same way now as ever
Somehow the both of us were wrong
We have to heal the separation

Tide and time will shape the changes
That many moons will see bestowed
Stronger than we can imagine
Stranger than we can suppose
We have to heal the separation

We need to know the hour is right
For us to heal the deep divide
And I can feel the affirmation
So real the revelation
To heal the separation

Heal the separation
End the prohibition, make it happen
Time to put things right to synergize to reunite
Remember who we are and where we come from Undo the damage done the change has got to come
Be now as then as one
