"Misinformation"

One line is smiling, the other telling lies
We take their expressions, maintain their disguise
Fact or fiction, we will never know
Paint us a picture where truth never shows

And we can't find the truth in the word
No we can't find the truth in the word

Lead us a dance round the woe, now here we go
Spin us till we're dizzy with the horror you show
And it's only good news when you know that it's too late
Show us all the misery and tell us it straight

And we can't find the truth in the word
