"Through My Window"

Visit "Through My Window" on MotoLyrics.com

first time i saw your face i knew your name before a word was spoken first time i touched your hair i understood this spell would not be broken why bother with these words? a perfect feeling can't be heard but still i want to tell you that you are the sunlight through my window you're making everything glow with a flutter of my heart i sense within your mind a love so bright and vivid without shadow and though i ought to know it can't be so let's drift to where the wind blows
