Chorus:

I said who?

Who?

Who are you?

Who's sneaking around?

I haven't a clue

I said who?

Who?

Who are you?

I'm much too tired to play peekaboo

I was up all night

It's the way of an owl

I heard the night birds tweet

And the lions growl

I was busy being wise

Now I need some sleep

Who's that trying to slink and creep?

Repeat Chorus once

Yeah, who would be out

This time of the day?

Tigger would make much more noise when he plays

Whoever it is, stay away from my tree

If I wasn't so sleepy,

I'm sure I would see

Repeat Chorus once

Oh, who, who, who can it be?

Who's hangin' 'round my favorite tree

Could it be Eeyore?

No, siree!

Could it be Pooh?

Well, maybe

Repeat Chorus twice

I'm much too tired to play peekaboo
