I'm drowning in deep whiskey
Soaked from my head to my toe
I'm drowning in deep whiskey
The current won't let me go

I never thought it would take this long
I thought sorry would make me feel strong
So I turn to a friend who can only help console me when I'm low
The more I turn the bottle up the farther down I go

Chorus

Solo

I hope tonight will be a better day
I'm feeling lost and carried away
Maybe I was dancing way to close- when she crossed my mind
Just give me a couple more hours -There's no telling what I'll find

Chorus

Repeat out
