You probably thought you'd find me- lost and lonely
But I found a place - where I can let you go
You may think - that I never loved you
But I'm just laying low -in Mexico

There's a cute senorita'
Who brings me tequila
A mariache band that plays
My favorite Mexican songs

The Cancun nights
Console the plight of my broken soul
That's why I am laying low in Mexico

****

As the Cancun nights
Console the plight of this broken soul
I'll be laying low in Mexico
