It was in a dream, I heard you scream
But then I woke up, it was gone
I pushed it aside, behind my mind
That was when I knew it was time.

How did you know where to go?
And how did you know who to know?
I do believe it's all inside the back of your mind
And it's time, yes it's time to let it out.

It's just begun you've had your fun
You've gotta get out and run
Please let her be and set yourself free
The killing got cold, it's so old.

How did you know where to go?
And how did you know who to know?
I do believe it's all inside the back of your mind
And it's time, yes it's time to let it out.

How did you know where to go?
And how did you know who to know?
I do believe it's all inside the back of your mind
And it's time, yes it's time
I know it's time, it's gotta be time, it's already time
To let it out
To let it out
You gotta let it out
Let it out
