"In Love With The Future"

We're dancing, on the ceiling
We're having a one-way conversation
I'm not the least bit worried

About a lack of communication.
We're waiting impatiently
for the adreneline to kick in.

I'm in love with the future.
And the future is you.
I'm in love with the future,
In an upside-down world, everything's brand new.

We're setting ourselves up for a fall
You are topsy to my turvey
We'll never have to decide

Between tragedy and comedy
Still waiting so patiently
for the adreneline to kick in.

(Chorus 2x)

Even if you were the only person on earth,
I still wouldn't need a crystal ball.

There's only one future, that I can see.
And it's both of us or nothing
Or nothing at all.

(Chorus 2x)
