If you're going out with someone new
I'm going out with someone too
I won't feel sorry for me
I'm getting drunk, but I much rather be...

Somewhere with you
Like the line on a carnival ride
And driving around on a Saturday night
You made fun of me for singing my song
In are hotel room just to turn you on
You said pick me up at 3 am
Your fighting with your Mom again
And I'd go. I'd go, I know...

Somewhere with you

I wont sit outside of your house
And wait for the lights to go out
Call up and ask you to rescue me
I'm in their bed, but I much rather sleep...

Somewhere with you
Like we did on the beach last summer
When the rain came down and we took cover down in your car up by the pier
You laid me down whispered in my ear,
"I hate my life, hold on to me
Boy if you ever decide to leave
Then I'll go, I'll go, I'll go"

I can go out every night of the week
Can go home with anybody I meet
But it's just a temporary high
Cause when I close my eyes
I'm somewhere with you, somewhere with you.

If you see me out on the town
And it looks like I'm burning it down
You won't ask and I won't say
What's in my heart. I'm always...

Somewhere with you
Like the line on a carnival ride
And driving around on a Saturday night
You made fun of me for singing my song
In are hotel room just to turn you on
You said pick me up at 3 am
Your fighting with your Mom again
And I'd go, I'd go, I'd go...

I can go out every night of the week
Can go home with anybody I meet
But it's just a temporary high
Cause when I close my eyes
I'm somewhere with you, somewhere with you.
