It all came so suddenly
You and I know that now I am inside your heart
Your face is telling me
That we are a priceless piece of art
I couldn't see it in your eyes
You're completely pity
The man I left behind
My skin like cinnamon
Your favorite spice
Yeah baby with your milky skin
I bet it tastes nice

Chorus

I walked and stuck on through
Visions of you
(repeats)
And who we will be together

When I close my eyes
You are what I see
Instead I realize
That I am no longer free
I am .. down by the hope and the ring
Inside of me

Chorus

Thanks to feel
