I met you in the Darkness
you shivered and you cried
You looked so pretty
with Tears in your Eyes
You tried to touch my Hand
I carried you away
I thought that I could hold you
But you left me all alone

I met you in the Darkness
you looked so pretty
with Tears in your eyes
You tried to touch my Hands
I carried you away
I thought that I could hold you
but you left me all alone

I'm dying
to feel your Soul of Ice
You hide yourself
behind these Lies
You became the creature of Maserade
It's your feeling - I'm your mate

You're building a Wall
of confusion and lies Nobody can hear your silent cries
But when you sleep
You dream of me
And I kiss you in your Dreams

I'm dying
to feel your Soul of Ice
you hide yourself
behind those lies
You became the creature of mascerade
it's your feeling - I'm your mate
You're building a Wall
of confusion and lies

you dream of me
And I kiss you in your dreams

You disappeared
in the Darkness of the Night I wanted to follow you but dark waves made to stop me
Well, this is me
I'm the fallen Angel
It must have been an Angel
with broken Wings

I'm dying to feel
your Soul f Ice
You hide yourself behind these lies Decay the creatures of Mascarade
It's your feeling
I'm your mate
of confusion and light
nobody can hear
your silent cries
But when you sleep, you dream
of me
and I'll kiss you in your Dreams

I'm dying to feel
your SOUL OF ICE
Denay the creature
of Mascarade
It's your feeling
I'm your mate
And I'll kiss you
in your Dreams
