Bless me said the lonely boy
Bless me said the lonely girl
Why does no one love me
Why will no one ever tell me why.

Bless me said the lonely man
Bless me said the lonely man
Now that my wife left me
Who is gonna fill my dreams at night.

I try but I don't succeed, It's only life
Made for changing and there for the rest of time

Bless me for the love of God
Bless me for the love of God

Can't you understand me,
Try to make a difference in my life
I just don't belong here
And everyone can see it in my eyes

Bless me
Bless me said the lonely man
Bless me
I'd kill for love
I'd kill for love
Bless me
Bless me
Bless me
I'd kill for love
I'd kill for love
Bless me
Bless me
Bless me
Love is all
Kabi kabi mere dil me khayal ata he
