If I was a stranger, I'd still call this home
Even through the changes, in life I have known
What lies in the future now, is destiny's game
No point asking questions, the answer doesn't change
I just want to live a life, that teaches me the dark
And light
And discipline the part of me, that needs to run away

I don't forget the memories, the fear hasn't gone
The loneliness of nighttime and distance till dawn
Finally I understand and won't be going there again
It's confident to my history, I hope it's there for
Good

You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone, alone
No loneliness with you

If I had a need I would surely need you
To help me with the changes that life puts me through
And forget all the other times that someone broke this
Heart of mine
Every time a lesson learned, it wasn't meant for me

You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone, alone
My home is here with you

You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone, alone
My only wish comes true If I was a stranger, I'd still Call this home
Even through the changes, in life I have known
What lies in the future now, is destiny's game
No point asking questions, the answer doesn't change
I just want to live a life, that teaches me the dark
And light
And discipline the part of me, that needs to run away

I don't forget the memories, the fear hasn't gone
The loneliness of nighttime and distance till dawn
Finally I understand and won't be going there again
It's confident to my history, I hope it's there for
Good

You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone, alone
No loneliness with you

It I had a need I would surely need you
To help me with the changes that life puts me through
And forget all the other times that someone broke this

Every time a lesson learned, it wasn't meant for me

You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone, alone
My home is here with you

You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone
You and me on the other side alone, alone
My only wish comes true
