Wake up it's another day
Just remember you can choose your own fate
The things that they say will fade
As long as you don't act like unformed clay
Think of all the things that you'll do
When their words aren't constantly choking you Just ignore them and follow through
With all the things that you will eventually do

There will never be a better day or a better time
So go ahead do it now
Forget about the hate and all the lies
And just remember
You'll never be alone when all your friends
Are right beside you
We live in a world of fakes so just promise me that you won't be one

When the world comes crumbling down
Where will you be you'll just be sitting around Crying loudly on the ground
Regretting all the things that you never done
Listen clearly do you hear that sound
That's the sound of turning your life around
Now that you have got a clue
Just be yourself and do what you want to do

You say you don't know I say you're gonna have to find out
You say you can't though but you're already halfway there
I don't know how I'll get through this
I don't know how I'll get through
