Hello~ it's good to see you again
What have you been doing lately tell me now
Same as always
I can't believe the way time flies
It must have been a million years ago
Really
Tell me is life treating you well
Could be worse I can't complain and how'bout you?
When it rains it pours
You haven't change at all

Small talk is all talk you ever need
If to succeed today
Meeting means a lot of greeting
Greeting means a lot of talking
Talking doesn't always mean you're thinking
Still we love those empty words

What a day so nice and warm, don't you think?
I've been told we'll get some rain this afternoon
It's time for me to go
But have you heard the latest news that you know who?
Did you know what with you know who
You don't say
You look fine what's new how is life
Pretty good and how's your car your kids and wife
Not too bad and you?
I really have to go now

Small talk is all talk you ever need
If to succeed today
Meeting means a lot of greeting
Greeting means a lot of talking
Talking doesn't always mean you're thinking
Still we love those empty words

We use the same familiar phrases over and over
Again(x3)

And over and over again
Meeting means a lot of greeting

Greeting means a lot of talking
Talking doesn't always mean you're thinking Still
Meeting means a lot of greeting
Greeting means a lot of talking
Talking doesn't always mean you're thinking
Still we love those empty words
