I don't get my kicks out of you,
I don't feel the way I used to do.

I know it's bad,
After what we had,
But I'm just not the angel you knew.

I don't get my kicks out of you,
I don't get my kicks out of you,
You're just too good to be true,
The booze and pills, the cheapest thrills,
They mean more to me now than you do,
I don't get my kicks out of you.

(I don't get my kicks, I don't get my kicks,
I don't get my kicks out of you,
I don't get my kicks out of you.)

I don't get my kicks out of you,
You gave me wings, so I flew,
You used to be a god to me,
But god help me, What could I do?

I don't get my kicks,
I don't get my kicks,
I don't get my kicks out of you.

(I don't get my kicks, I don't get my kicks, I don't get my Kicks out of you,
I just don't get my kicks... Out of you.)
