This is not my redemption

Blindfolded you can't see this is a curse not a cure
Save yourself from your saviour
You find comfort in your illusions
This is a curse not a cure

I don't need any crutch to believe in myself
I don't need anyone to define who I am
This is your broken pride

The pages burn and the words you built your life on to
You are the flaunted you'll be the haunted

No kings, no queens, follow the serpent and be your own saviour
No kings, no queens, we make our own hell out of ourselves
I've learned to sin without any regrets, I won't be led by doubt
You are the plague, you are the contaminated

I won't be led by doubt

This is not my redemption
This is your broken pride

I am my own god
I don't need anyone to define who I am
I am my own god
I don't need any crutch to believe in myself
I am my own god
I created my demons
I am my own god
