songs come on my radio some are fast and some are slow some about sunshine some about rain but to this old heart they sound the same even though love notes and words might change

they're all about you those kisses underneath the stars...you those angel eyes and open arms...you

layin at night in this big old bed a million thoughts run through my head sometimes i cant even sleep your memory wont let me be even if i drift off to dream

i close my eyes and all i see is you yeah your the star of every scene...you
conversations all begin with "hey whats up" and "how you been" but by the time they end they're all about you revelatons late at night wishes tossed up to the sky best moments of my life

it doesnt matter what it is...you oh its a fight that i cant win every scene and every song girl the list goes on and on every night girl every dream every thought and everything
yeah all about you
