Tell me that you're scared or afraid of running
And I will hold your hand
Let me feel the pain that keeps you suffering
So I understand(so I understand)
Take me to the darkest place in your head
To the voices that dive in
The sinking ship comes to the seabed
We'll be rising again(we'll be rising again)
We'll be rising again!

Don't let go of your heart
We'll be dancing till the end
'Cause our love is our sweetest, our sweetest revenge

Now that you have nothing left to hide
Nothing left to fear
Tell me that you need me by your side
And I will be there
And I will be there!

Don't let go of your heart, we'll be dancing till the end
'Cause our love is our sweetest, our sweetest revenge!
Our sweetest revenge, our sweetest revenge

Don't let go of your heart
We'll be dancin' till the end
'Cause our love is our sweetest, our sweetest revenge

Don't let go of your heart
We'll be dancin' till the end
'Cause our love is our sweetest, our sweetest revenge
Our sweetest revenge
