"Guitars In The Sky"

And I'm willing to agree
Last night I had
Everybody scream
It's gonna be alright
I was livin' in
A field so green
When a vision came to me
I know I'd never seen
Up above the clouds
Where the sky was so blue
I heard a voice
Loud and true

I saw guitars in the sky
I saw guitars in the sky

And I listened
To the tune
They played
That I never heard before
I knew it anyway
When the morning
Came around so fast
I could not recall a sound
I knew it wouldn't last
Though all the notes
Seem to ring in my ear
It was a tune
I could here

I heard guitars in the sky
I heard guitars in the sky
