CHORUS

Free, you've never been so free
Oleanders, tea and tulips,
Arts and leisure, rainy daydreams
Free, you've never been so free.

You're putting on your makeup
You're going out for air
Tonight's the night we break up
And I'm not even there.

I'm dying of your beauty
Our love is such a crime
I cannot set you free now
Cause you were never mine.

CHORUS

I wanted to believe you
I wanted to be one
But everything word you told me
Was such a loaded gun.

Free, you've never been so free.

Though I cry for you tonight
I can see you from my window
As you go Free.

Oleander, tea and tulips
Arts and leisure, rainy daydreams
Free, you've never been so free
You've never been so free
You've never been so free.
