I used to think I was so hard to read
But now I know my heart was right here on my sleeve.
Everyone can tell by the way I look at her
All the times that I denied it
Now there's no point in trying to hide it.

CHORUS

It's no secret that I care
It's no lie I'm always there
If I asked her back she would
Turn away from me for good
You can tell her that I'm lonely
And she's the one that I'm dreaming of
It's no secret who I love.

It's not that I'm ashamed or that I feel unsure

Just that I can't forget I lost her once before.
But I've got this smile even tears can't wash away
Every moment I stand near her
My intentions just get clearer.

CHORUS

It's no secret that I care
It's no lie I'm always there
If I asked her back she would
Walk away from me for good
Won't you tell her that I'm lonely
And tell her she's the one that I'm thinking of Oh, it's no secret
It's no secret who I love.
