Well we've been here once before

And we've stuck it out for more

When we come around

We'll settle down

The cracks below the floor.

Has it been eleven years

Since I stood here with my peers

And we started out

To conquer doubt and frisbee.

I should've been a whole lot farther

I'm never going back to college

For just one good day job...

You're not missing much for sure

Only everything that's yours

And at times it fails

And we're full sail in the gutter.

Is this home cause I forgot

If it is then thanks a lot

'Cause I can't pretend

To know one end from another.
